Costa Rican President
Has to Swim for Life
After Wreck of Yacht

By Associated Press
SAN JOSE, April 8.—Alfredo Gonzales, president of Costa Rica, had a narrow escape from a shark when the presidential yacht was wrecked in the Caribbean three days ago. He and the members of his party swam ashore the next day.

The president, accompanied by his cabinet, several congressmen and other government officials, went on the government yacht, Costa Rica, which was on the Atlantic coast. On their way to the island of San Juan, the president drove the yacht on the rocks. The passengers and crew all got to dry land and were rescued by a small boat. The president, for two days they were without food or shelter. They walked to the nearest beach station and came into San Jose today.

The people had heard of the danger to the president and they were alerted, and gave him a rousing reception when he drove through the streets of the city.

CHARTER IS ASKED FOR NEW CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

Christian Church Plans to Take Over Perry Rainey Institute

By filing a petition for a charter in Fulton superior court Thursday, the Christian church of Georgia took the first step toward acquiring the Perry Rainey institute at Auburn, Ga., in Barrow county, and converting it to the first Christian college in the southeast. The college will be co-educational.

Rev. John H. Wood, of Atlanta, secretary of the Christian Church Ministry of Georgia, is in charge of the movement. He states that arrangements have been made for the transfer, and that the new Christian college will open next fall.

By then, he says, $25,000 will be raised to spend on the institution; he stated that the institution would be given to the Christian church by the Mercer Baptist system on the agreement that the Christian church pay the debts of the school, part of the $25,000 to be raised will be for this, the rest, amounting to over $15,000, will go for improvements.

The school will give an A. B. degree, stated Mr. Wood, the college will be taught in general its work at first will be to take pupils through what is equivalent to the junior course at the University of Georgia.

Those who applied for the charter in the superior court are Judge T. O. Hatcher, of the municipal court; Rev. John M. Wood, R. M. Patterson, and Stanley R. Grubb of Clarke county. These three were the first to apply.

Trustees, R. W. & J. V. Crenshaw, attorneys, filed the petition.

NEGRO ON TRIAL FOR KILLING W. E. ORMOND

Following arguments by Solicitor Dorsey and Attorney John Moore, for the state, and John A. Boykin, for the defense, the jury in Judge Hill's branch of the superior court Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock retired to the case of Tom Ballard, colored, charged with murder.

Ballard, who is now receiving a new trial, was convicted in Judge Hill's court a month ago of the murder of W. E. Ormond, fifty-four years old, 63 Cooper street, November 30, 1914. Mr. Ormond, a cripple, rushed to the door of his wife and daughter, who were held up by a highwayman, was shot and killed. On the ground that Ballard had not been sufficiently identified as the slayer, the new trial was granted. Ballard was sentenced to life imprisonment at his first trial.

OUTLAW WINS SUIT AGAINST MRS. FRANCIS

Charles W. Outlaw, formerly of Atlanta and now on a "beat" here, has been awarded $25,000 damages in a suit against his mother-in-law, Mrs. I. H. Francis, for the alienation of his wife's affections, according to clippings he has from the Baltimore Sun and the Baltimore Star.

The suit was tried in the superior court of Baltimore, where Mr. Outlaw now lives; and, according to the Baltimore papers ended in a unanimous verdict for him.

JUDGE GRUBB DISMISSES 34 SUITS AGAINST L. & N.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 8.—A special from Huntsville, Ala., says: Judge Grubb, of the federal district court, has dismissed thirty-four suits against the Louisville and Nashville railway that were instituted by English, French, German and Italian cotton firms who did business with the bankrupt firm of Knight, Yancy & Co., of Huntsville, for $23,000,000 and plaintiffs sought to recover for their losses upon the railroad because of alleged negligence in the handling of bales of lading.

$8,400,000,000 Is War's Cost to Date; 5,950,000 Men Lost

ROME, April 7.—(Via Paris, April 8.)—The nations now at war have lost 5,950,000 men in the first eight months, according to figures prepared for the Avanti, a Socialist organ, by its military expert. The article declares the only result of the war will be a reciprocal wearing out of the forces engaged and not a military victory. It is calculated that the nations now at war will exhaust the reserves of men, and that the country which will suffer least from this exhaustion will be Russia.

TURKEY CALLS OUT ALL WHO CAN BEAR ARMS

Boys Between 19 and 20 Ordered Out by Sultan; Says Reuter Dispatch

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 8.—The sultan of Turkey today issued a ministerial order of war, says a Reuter dispatch, to call out all men capable of bearing arms, but heretofore not liable for service, inclusive of the ages of nineteen and twenty, for the defense of the Turkish coast and frontiers, and the maintenance of order.

The ministry also is given power to enroll for military service all immigrants or duration of mobilization.

It is not known whether the Zarina was destroyed by a mine or a submarine.

ANTI-SALOON ADVOCATES ENCOURAGED BY BRYAN

Secretary Expresses Hope Democratic Party Will Oppose Liquor in States

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 8.—Anti-saloon advocates here were visibly encouraged today over a statement by Secretary Bryan expressing the hope that the Democratic party would take the prohibition side in the next campaign in states where saloons are an issue. The statement was issued in connection with a letter Secretary Bryan had written to L. W. Kennington, national committee man from Iowa, advocating defeat for candidates who could be controlled by the liquor interests.

Mr. Kennington had written that the secretary's name was being used to help half of a candidate for the national committee. Mr. Bryan declared it seemed improbable that the liquor question should arise in the platform of either the Democratic or Republican party, but that there was no reason why a Democratic national committee should not represent the party sentiment on the prohibition question.

Prohibition in England Is Up to Parliament

LONDON, April 8.—The cabinet having failed to reach a decision on the drink question, no settlement is expected until parliament meets next week. The impression is growing that the government will content itself with a measure prohibiting sale of spirits.

The conservative leaders, A. J. Balfour and Andrew Bonar Law, are believed already to have privately assented to whatever action may be taken, provided no measure for total prohibition is considered at this time. In proposing the prohibition of the sale of spirits and possibly wine, and lessening the strength of beer, Great Britain would be following the footsteps of Russia, who adopted national prohibition, which prohibited the manufacture or sale of spirits.

Even prohibition of traffic in spirits is not likely to be adopted without considerable opposition. The influence of the party favoring voluntary abstinence is growing. Its latest recruits include the heads of various churches, who have signed a pledge to abstain from intoxicating liquors during the war.

Opposition to suppression of the use of spirits is in some degree sectional, since Scotland consumes per capita three times as much spirit as England and half again as much as Ireland. Scottish opposition, if solid, easily might defeat the measure.

Hairs Quickly Vanish After This Treatment

(Helps to Beauty.)
Science has aided in simplifying the banishing of hairy growths from the face, and according to a beauty specialist, the most effective treatment yet devised consists of applying a delicate paste to the hairy surface for two or three minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered dandruff. When this paste is removed and the skin washed every trace of hair has vanished. Be sure to get real dandruff.—(Adv.)

GERMAN MISSION TO ABYSSINIA IS HALTED

Italy Turns Back Party Said to Be Trying to Stir Up
Strife in Sudan

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, April 8.—(Via Paris).—The German mission which tried unsuccessfully to penetrate to Addis Ababa to communicate with the German minister to Abyssinia has just reached Rome on its way home. Italy did not permit it to pass through Eritrea but promised that mail from the minister would go forward in due course.
The members of the mission had some remarkable experiences, which included 23 days on the Red sea in a native boat and an encounter with a French cruiser which almost resulted in their capture. It has been rumored the chief of this mission was to induce the Abyssinians to attack British forces in the Sudan. This the Germans deny, saying their only purpose was to carry mail to the minister. The mission consists of Herr Frobenius, an explorer, described as an intimate friend of Emperor William, two secretaries and a special attaché of the foreign office.
From Asabab, Arabia, which the travelers reached via Roumania, Bulgaria and Turkey, they crossed the Red sea to Massawa, capital of the Italian colony of Eritrea. It was on this trip that a French cruiser overhauled them. The native boat chartered by the mission was thoroughly searched, but the Germans had so carefully hidden themselves they remained undiscovered.

FARRAR IN "CARMEN" MAY SMASH RECORDS

ROSINA GALLI, premier danseuse of the Metropolitan opera company's ballet, which will appear three times this season. It promises to be a feature of the opera season.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Tremendous Demand Shown
for This Opera—All the Others Are Selling Rapidly
This Week

Probably the "biggest money house" ever faced by a star of the Metropolitan Opera company will be that of Wednesday night, April 21, when Geraldine Farrar sings her new role of Carmen at the Atlanta auditorium.

The largest house, from a standpoint both of numbers and cash, on record for the Metropolitan was that which heard "Aida" in the first Atlanta opera season, more than 7,000 persons paying something over $18,000 to hear Caruso on his first appearance. It has never reached that figure since because of more stringent regulations limiting the number of "standing room only" tickets sold.

But this year, it is believed, the house will be even larger from a financial standpoint. The rush for "Carmen" has been such that it is now apparent there will not be an empty seat for the glowing Hiet opera. And as a new balcony has been added since the opening season it is believed there will be a $19,000 house.

With the exception of this opera, the public seems to like all the works equally well. There has been a heavy sale for "The Magic Flute" the Saturday matinee, and out-of-town folk especially are buying big blocks of seats for this and the Saturday night performance, "Madame Sans Gene." "Rigoletto" on Thursday afternoon is selling a tremendous sale, for Atlanta remembers its tenebrous and its wonderful quartet, "The Huguonots," which promises to be one of the most artistic and elaborate operas of the week, in its demand, and there is a great deal of interest being shown in "L'Amore del Tre Re," which has been regularly on the New York program for the past two seasons and which is increasing steadily in popular favor. "Tales of Hoffman," the Tuesday matinee, is holding its own in the demand for seats and a big audience will hear it.

The sale of tickets is going on so rapidly that prospective purchasers are warned to make their reservations without further delay. In a short time the choicest seats will be gone.

DRIVER OF JITNEY BUS BLAMED FOR ACCIDENT
Recorder Johnson Dismisses
Case Against Motorman
R. C. Bryson

The case against R. C. Bryson, motorman of the Marietta street car which smashed into a jitney bus last Friday night, was dismissed Wednesday afternoon after a hearing before Recorder Johnson. From the evidence it was adjudged that G. W. Hammock, driver of the jitney bus, was running just ahead of the street car, when he attempted to stop suddenly to take on two passengers who had hailed him. As he jammed on his brakes the street car ran into the bus, the motorman being unaware of the jitney's intention to stop.

Miss Bertie Campbell, 64, Poplar street a passenger in the jitney, and Hammock, the driver, were painfully injured. Hammock contended that the street car was going at a rapid rate and gave no signal of its approach. Miss Campbell said the street car company had settled with her for $15.

Attorney Clarence Wurtzbarger appeared in behalf of the jitney bus driver, while C. B. Boser represented the street car company.

GREENVILLE, S. C., SHERIFF

Says Officers Didn't Visit At-

Ball Player

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
GREENVILLE, S. C., April 8.—The story in the Atlanta newspaper Tuesday to the effect that the Greenville, S. C., sheriff was knocked out by Joe Jackson in Atlanta Wednesday is entirely erroneous declared Sheriff Reesor, of Greenville today. The sheriff said that as far as he knew no officer had been to Atlanta to get Jackson. There is no warrant here against him. The sheriff has consulted lawyers to ascertain if there are grounds for civil action against the paper. If so he avowed he would push the matter into courts.

Mrs. Joe Jackson is in Greenville, but expects to leave here in a few days to join her husband on his way to Cleveland.

Crutcher Decides Not to Pardon of Allied Warships

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., April 8.—With the sternmost day of the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich and its crew, the commerce destroyer ended her spectacular war career. Details of the actual internment of the Prinz Eitel before being taken to Norfolk navy yard, where she will remain until the end of the war, were worked out at a conference early today between Rear Admiral Fletcher, command-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet; Rear Admiral Helm, of the battleship Alabama, and Beatty, commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, and collector of the Port Hamilton.

Decision of Commander Thierichsen, of the Prinz Eitel, to intern his ship followed the receipt by him of an imperative notice from the United States government early last night that the time limit for his stay in this port would expire at midnight. Had he not asked to intern his ship Captain Thierichsen would have been compelled to depart from American waters not later than 4 a. m. today.

In requesting permission of the Washington government to intern Captain Thierichsen explained that "failure of expected relief to arrive" made the stop necessary rather than "deliver crew and ship to fruitless and certain destruction by British and French warships waiting off the Virginia Capes." It was said he had expected German warships to arrive to aid him in eluding the allied warships.

On board the Prinz Eitel today, which up until the last night before her time limit expired, happened to be ready for a dash to sea, Captain Thierichsen and his men seemed to be gloomy. The captain declared today that he was heartbroken because he had been forced to intern it had not intended doing so and it was not absolutely necessary.

Many British ships we leaving this port today as a result of the decision to intern the Prinz Eitel, which was announced to the British ambassador against commerce ships of the allied European countries.

With the taking of the Prinz Eitel to the Norfolk navy yard today the breach blocks of her gun were to be removed and the connecting rod of her engines detached. The Prinz Eitel had been laid up here since March 16, when she limped into port following her remarkable commerce raiding voyage from the Orient, during which she destroyed the American ship William P. Frye.

Daniels Gives Orders

For Intending Eitel
(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 8.—Secretary Daniels today gave form orders to Rear Admiral Beatty, commanding the Norfolk navy yard, to sail the Prinz Eitel Friedrich to the navy yard for internment.

Admiral Beatty will determine to what extent the ship will be dismantled, but it was not thought there would be done that to remove her breach blocks from her guns and later on connecting rod of her engine. At first officers and men probably will be given the freedom of Norfolk, and later on, at least, probably will have practically unrestricted liberty, upon their promise not to violate the neutrality of the United States. It always has been customary to extend rather than curtail the liberty of interned belligerents.

ARNOLD BROYLES NOV
TEMPORARY ORDINARY

Under authority conferred by the code of Georgia, Arnold Broyles, clerk of the superior court of Fulton county, assumed temporary charge of the office of the late Ordinary John R. Wilkinson Thursday morning.

Within the next few days, as required by law, Clerk Broyles will order an election to fill the vacancy caused by Judge Wilkinson's death. Freshmen said they saw Little Annie leaving home about school time Wednesday morning with a small bundle under her arm. She never appeared at her class in the Moreland academy school. Her mother, searching through Annie's effects, found some underwear and three dresses missing. The girl was wearing a top coat over her light pink dress when she went away.

GIRL, 11, WHO LEFT HOME AFTER SCOLDING, FOUND IN HOGANSVILLE

ANNIE LOUISE HILL.

Annie Louise Hill Went to Grandmother's Home After Writing Mother She "Would Never See Her Again"

Trailing her from her home to the Terminal station and thence to Hogansville, Ga., searchers Thursday morning succeeded in locating 11-year-old Annie Louise Hill at her grandmother's home, whither she went after writing a note to her mother saying she would never return.

H. P. Norwood, brother of Annie Louise's mother, Mrs. Willie Sommer, of 33 Kuhns street, by diligent inquiry Wednesday night and Thursday found that the little girl had gone to the Terminal station Wednesday afternoon by herself and bought a ticket to Hogansville. A telegram to her grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Hill, who lives there, confirmed the belief that Annie Louise Hill was there.

Mrs. Sommer, a saleslady at a local department store, was going to work Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, she said, when Annie Louise did some childish thing for which Mrs. Sommer scolded her.

"She seemed to take it terribly to heart," said the distracted mother, in tears, Thursday, "and I told her that we would talk it over quietly when I came back from work Wednesday night. She and I walked to the street car. I thought she would go right to school and then be waiting for me when I came home. Instead, when I came back home I found this note in her childish handwriting."

"You have been to me as a mother ought to be. You have bought me music and candy, and oh, you have been so kind to me, mother, that it nearly breaks my heart to go away."

"You will never see me again, mother, so good-bye."

"Your loving daughter,"

"ANNIE LOUISE."

DIVORCE AND MARRIAGE LAWS ARE DEPLORED

Judge Ellis and Jury Stirred by What They Hear in 96 Cases Acted On

Following the disposal of 96 divorce cases in three days, Judge Ellis, of the superior court, and his divorce jury and John A. Copeland, foreman, all expressed regret for what they had seen during the trial of the cases, and mutually deplored the present laws governing divorce and marriage.

"Every time I finish a divorce docket I am overcome with regret," said Judge Ellis to the jury. "I don't blame any good citizen in this county or this country who has studied the divorce question at all from having the same feeling and the same bad taste in his mouth that you and I have after seeing the cases before us in the past few days. But you and I both have to carry out the laws as they exist, whether we like them or not. The thing to do is to change these laws."

Judge Ellis asked Deputy Williams for a Pulton Daily Report. From it he read the names of four cases filed Wednesday. "And so it goes, every day of the year," said the judge.

John A. Copeland, foreman of the jury, suggested that a man should be punished for a crime if he married a "woman" who was really a little girl of 13 or 14 years, as was brought out in one of the cases.

"Yes," said Judge Ellis. "If a man goes to the bank to put through a $10 business transaction, he has to be identified carefully before he can get a cent—by if he goes to the ordinary's office to arrange for his marriage, he doesn't have to be investigated at all. He gives what names he pleases, what ages, get his license, and perhaps marries a 15-year-old child."

Terry Divorce Suit
Suit for divorce was filed Thursday by Mrs. Clara Williams Terry, of De Kalb county, against Thomas Alonzo Terry, a foreman of construction, who, his wife says, earns $100 a month and owns a half interest in the property at 147 Kirkwood avenue. They were married in 1906. She asks alimony and the custody of two children, J. W. and J. D. Humphries are her attorneys.

Atlanta Rider's Grit Draws Great Praise
Johnny Bryant Makes 65-Mile Motorcycle Run Under Trying Conditions
Riding sixty-five miles with a deep gash in his leg and a broken seal ring cutting his finger every time he gripped the handle bars, Johnny Bryant, a local rider, completed the motorcycle endurance run from Atlanta to Birmingham last Monday on schedule time, a performance which for sheer grit has excited the admiration of all motorcycle fans in the city.

Near Dallas on the return run to Birmingham, Bryant's machine was accidentally rammed by a Birmingham rider. He picked himself up, mounted again and finished the course, a distance of sixty-five miles.

Examined by a Birmingham doctor, it was found that he had been painfully injured in his right leg and that a seal ring on the middle finger of his right hand had been broken and one end driven into the flesh to the bone. A pair of pliers were used to draw the ring out.

BRITISH LOST HEAVILY IN NUEVO CHAPPELLE FIGHT

Casualty List Issued Thursday Runs Total to 2,941 Men

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 8.—To yesterday's big list of British casualties of the rank and file at Nuevo Chapelle was added today another list which contained the names of 1,103 men. Of these 346 were killed and the remainder wounded.

The casualty list issued in London yesterday carried the names of 1,543 non-commissioned officers and men of seven regiments. Of these 649 were killed, 1,107 wounded and 87 reported missing.

The total for the two days' lists shows 995 men killed, 3,888 wounded and 87 missing. Altogether the lists show casualties amounting to 2,941 in killed, wounded and missing. The lists evidently cover the sanguinary fighting which resulted in the capture of Nuevo Chapelle last month.

An After-Easter Clearaway of Smart $10 and $12.50 Hats at $5.00

Flowers 10c
They Were 75c and $1 a Bunch!

If you've the knack of trimming your own hats here's an opportunity to save.

Flowers that would ordinarily cost $1.00 and $1.50, are to be sold at 10c a bunch!

Roses in all colors, big, fine roses, too, clusters of wisteria in white and colors, hydrangeas, lilacs—all 10c a bunch.

Keeping things fresh, is another way of saying allowing nothing to accumulate. All of which is the first law of this Millinery Section.

So tomorrow we shall put on sale at $5.00 eighty-five hats that were marked $10.00 and $12.50—true some few were $15.00.

Now we might well hold these hats at their regular worth price and sell them off as the days pass—we prefer this quicker way of clearing them out in a day, right now, when such a sale will be most appreciated.

There are large hats and chic small hats; there are white hats, black hats, colored hats, tailored and semi-dress hats, smart in line artistically trimmed, that show their worth. Early for these.

A Waist Sale

The New Prices Show the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. Clearaway Methods at Work

There are some three hundred twenty-five waists in the sale. They are marked at prices that in no way approach the worth of the waists or the service they will give you. But it's a clearaway with us and accordingly nothing else matters much.

At 39c Were $1.00

Some of hundred fifty waists of voiles and linon, in a wide diversity of styles; high and low collars, trimmed variously with embroideries, laces and tucks. One laundering and they are restored to their full freshness.

At $1.50 Were $7.50 to $10.00

One hundred seventy-five of these, sheer, dainty, summery blouses; many of them hand-embroidered, most of them hand-made; high and low necks; opening in back. You will like the fine tucks you will see on many.

New Crepe de Chine Blouses $2.25 and $3.45

Just arrived are two of the smartest groups of crepe de chine blouses to sell at $2.25 and $3.45. They are a lot more attractive than any we have had at these prices—with tucked fronts, with embroidered fronts, with high-low collars. These in black and white.

With these crepe new Georgette crepe blouses at $5.75, in flesh, maize and white.

Novelties in Laces and Embroideries

Now that when are getting into the making of spring clothes; now that Opera We is hurrying Atlantawards; let it be known that the smart lace and embroidery novelties are ready.

Among them are—

Allover Silk Shadow Laces—used extensively for blouses, the daintiest patterns, in white, cream, flesh and black. 36 to 40 inches wide, $1.00 to $5.00 a yard.

Oriental crepe—27 inches wide, in cream and white, many patterns, unusually fine quality, $1.19 a yard.

Net or Shadow Laces—like mist, so fine in edges 36 to 150 a yard; white and black; to match, 18 to 45 inches wide, $1.25 to $5.00 a yard.

Silk Nets—in all shades, at $1.25 and $1.50 a yard.

Net Nets—a superb quality, 72 inches wide, flesh, white and cream; $1.00 a yard.

Organdie edges and flouncing embroideries are favored—all white and white with edges touched with colors; edges 36 to $1.00 a yard; flouncings, 18 to 45 inches wide, 75c to $3.00 a yard.

A Host of Novelties—in mull, French crepe, Georgette crepe and mousseline de soie embroideries; many in match sets; white, cream and white with colors; widths 18 to 45 inches. They are wonderfully patterned, as lacy as cobweb, and then very heavy patterns that are accentuated by the lightness of the fabric—these $1.50 to $8.50 a yard.

And for the baby's clothes, surely these must be the daintiest match sets that ever were evolved!

New in the Hosiery Section

Children's fancy top socks, 25c and 30c.

Children's plain hosiery in white, pink, blue and black, 25c.

Women's silk hose, superb qualities, black, white and about every color that one could want, at $1.00 and $1.50.

MASONS TO PAY HONOR TO JUDGE WILKINSON

Funeral of Honored Citizen and Public Official Set for Friday Afternoon

Funeral services of Judge John R. Wilkinson will be held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the First Baptist church, and at West View cemetery he will be buried with Masonic honors.

Judge Wilkinson, order of Fulton county, thirty-third degree Mason, officer of the grand lodge of Georgia, widely known and universally admired during his long residence in Atlanta, died at 7:15 o'clock Wednesday evening at his home, 42 Dixie avenue, Inman Park.

The services at the church Friday will be conducted by the pastor, Dr. Charles W. Daniel. At West View they will be in charge of the grand lodge of Georgia, of which Judge Wilkinson was junior grand master. The following gentlemen will act as pall bearers: John R. Dickey, Thomas H. Jeffries, J. C. Greenfield, J. H. Porter, Andy P. Stewart and E. P. McBurney.

There will be an honorary escort consisting of the judge and county officials of Fulton county, the officers and deacons of the First Baptist church, the postmasters association of Georgia, City Lodge of Masonry No. 2 and all pastmasters of Masonic lodges. The Scottish Rite guard will form a guard of honor and the Scottish Rite choir, twenty male voices, will sing. There will be an escort of Knights Templars of Atlanta commandery, who will also act as escort to the grand commandery.

The officers of the grand lodge, of the grand commandery and of all grand lodges will attend the services.

All Masons are requested to meet at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Masonic temple. They will receive a special communication from Gate City Lodge and then march across the street to the church.

Out of respect to Judge Wilkinson's memory, Judge John T. Pendleton, chief judge of the superior court, ordered it closed all day Friday. Judge Andy Calhoun ordered the criminal court closed; Judge H. M. Reid ordered the city court closed; and Judge B. D. Thomas ordered the municipal court closed.

Judge Wilkinson's death was sudden and has been a shock to all his friends. He had been in poor health for some time, but only last Saturday was confined to the house. Sunday he seemed improved, but his condition grew worse Monday and physicians pronounced his illness Bright's disease. He was unconscious from early Wednesday afternoon until he died.

There were few men in Atlanta more popular than Judge Wilkinson. Through his prominence in Masonry and long service as ordinary of the grand lodge, hundreds of friends who admired him greatly for his sterling integrity and loved him for the gentle, kindliness and staunch loyalty he displayed on every occasion. Not only in his death a loss to the city and to his brothers in fraternity, but it is a personal bereavement all who came under the spell of his winning charm.

Judge Wilkinson was fifty-eight years old. He was born November 26, June 26, 1856, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Wilkinson. His education was received at the University of Georgia and at Mercer university. For some time he has been connected with the Georgia business interests of his father there, but over thirty years ago moved to Atlanta and since then has resided here continuously.

His career in Atlanta is a record of honest and successful achievement. He took a leading part in city and county politics and so merited the confidence of the voters that he never failed once of election as ordinary. This office he had held for fourteen years, and had served three months of his new term which began in January.

Judge Wilkinson was one of the most prominent Masons in the United States, one of the highest ranking thirty-third degree of the supreme council of the southern jurisdiction of Scottish Rite Masonry. He was a special deputy for the Scottish Rite in the Atlanta jurisdiction and had filled scores of offices in the subordinate and grand bodies of Scottish Rite.

He was a charter member and pastmaster of Gate City lodge No. 2 of Atlanta; past grand high priest of Royal Arch Masonry in Georgia.

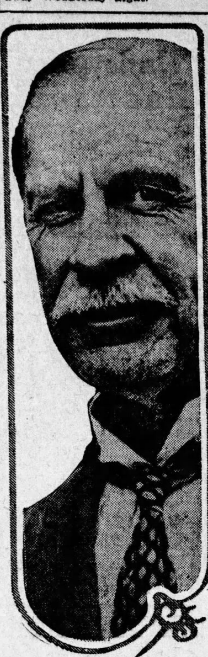

For over twenty years he had attended the annual sessions of the grand lodge and had been a leading spirit in the work of Masonry throughout the country. He was one of the founders of the Scottish Rite Masonry in the Atlanta jurisdiction, and was not only the special representative of the Atlanta bodies in the supreme council, but had served as venerable master of Heredom lodge of Perfection No. 4 and as wise master of White Eagle chapter No. 1, of House Creek. At the time of his death he was junior grand warden of the grand lodge of Georgia, having been unanimously elected to that office last October. As one of the promoters of the Atlanta Masonic temple at the time of its erection and vice president and director of the Masonic Temple company, he took a keen interest in the progress of local Masonry and of all its works.

Judge Wilkinson was grand standardbearer of the grand commandery, Knights Templars of Georgia. He was past high priest of Mount Zion chapter of Atlanta; past thrice illustrious master of Jason Burr council, Atlanta; and past eminent grand commander of Atlanta commandery, Knights Templars of Georgia.

He was a member of the First Baptist church and had been a deacon for years past.

Surviving Judge Wilkinson are his wife, formerly Miss Ann Wood, of Newman; two sons, W. B. Wilkinson and Henry Wilkinson; one sister, Mrs. M. C. Daniel, of Quitman, Ga.; three brothers, Mel R. Wilkinson, of Atlanta, president of the Atlanta chamber of commerce; T. V. Wilkinson, of Newman, Ga.; and Edward Wilkinson, of Texas.

JUDGE J. R. WILKINSON, Ordinary of Fulton county, high in Masonry and one of Atlanta's most beloved citizens, who passed away Wednesday night.

BLAZE ON PORCH ROOF IS QUICKLY SUPPRESSED

Quick work on the part of the fire department extinguished a small blaze on the roof of a porch at 103 Whitehall street Thursday morning at 4 o'clock. Roomers in the house, which is rented by Mrs. M. G. Gentry, did not even wake up while the fire was burning.

Persons in Bauknight's furniture store, corner of Trinity avenue and Whitehall street, saw the fire on the roof and turned in the alarm. Chemicals put the fire out at once. It is a mystery how the blaze started.

Hen Lays Big Egg
If all the eggs were the size of the one laid Tuesday by a hen, belonging to C. Boyd, 60 Neal street, there would no longer be any such slogan as "The High Cost of Living," for this egg is about three and a half times the weight of an ordinary egg. It measures just eight and one-half inches over its greatest length, and six and an eighth inches at its smallest.

CASES ORDERED AGAINST T. M. A. CLUB OPERATORS

Mrs. Tabarine and John McMillan Accused of Running Club for Gain

Police Chief Beavers Thursday morning directed that cases be docketed against Mrs. Minnie Tabarin and John McMillan on charges of violating city locker club ordinance in that they operated the T. M. A. club for personal gain. Officers were sent immediately to serve copies of charges upon them.

The police case is based upon the application for a receiver recently filed by Mrs. Tabarin in Fulton superior court, in which she alleged that she was not getting from McMillan, the manager of the club, her rightful share in the profits of its operation, and asked the court to remove McMillan and place a receiver in charge.

This the court did, naming T. J. Ripley receiver, but when it developed that in claiming a share of the profits of the club Mrs. Tabarin had unwittingly laid herself open to prosecution under the city ordinance—which ordinance prohibits the operation of a locker club for profit—Mrs. Tabarin filed a retraxit, setting up that her first application had been filed under a mere misapprehension and that the club was not in any way operated for profit and that she was only seeking to obtain from McMillan certain money due her on an old debt.

SCOTCH ENTERTAINMENT PROVED BIG SUCCESS

The entertainment of the Scottish association Wednesday evening at the Ansley hotel for the benefit of Scotch war widows was a big success. After the program of Scotch songs and Scotch dances the guests concluded the evening with general dancing.

The dances of Miss Dorothy Murray and Dr. Alex B. Smellie were encored many times. A number of songs were rendered by Miss Irma Toland, Robert Henderson, Jimmy Laddell and Miss Ora Thayer.

Dandruff Soon Ruins the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

PART OF DIXIE HIGHWAY IN GEORGIA IS SELECTED

President of Association Says
Tennessee Governor's Delay
in "Imperiling" Project

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 8.—C. E. James, president of the Dixie Highway association, last night announced that the association had selected part of the route of the projected road from Chicago to Miami, Fla., and that a call had been issued for two conferences at which it was proposed to determine the location of the remainder of the highway. The first conference is to be held here April 15 and the second at Chicago April 22.

Under the resolution adopted at the governors' conference here Saturday last, location of the entire route was to be determined by a commission of fourteen men, two each to be appointed by the governors of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia and Florida. A motion to give a voice in the selection of the route to the seven incorporators of the association, of which James is president, was rejected by the governors' conference.

GOVERNOR HAS NOT ACTED.
President James' statement said the association had taken action because the failure of Governor Rye, of Tennessee, to name the commissioners for that state was delaying the project.

The first section of the Dixie highway is designated by the association as follows:

Commencing at a point on the Kentucky and Tennessee state line near Albany, Ky.; thence southwardly along the Cumberland plateau passing near Jamestown, Tenn.; Crossville, Elizabethton and Dunlap; crossing Signal mountain to Chattanooga; thence by Lookout mountain, over Missionary Ridge, through Chickamauga National park to Kingston, Ga.; Cartersville, Marietta, Atlanta and Macon; thence to Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. James' statement declares that in accordance with the provisions adopted by the governors' conference here last Saturday is "imperiling" the highway cause by "endeavoring to pledge possible appointees to conditions." The proclamation locates a part of the route, and leaves the decision as to the remainder to two other conferences, one to be held in Chattanooga, April 15, and the other in Chicago, April 22.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING OF MISS CALHOUN AND MR. WITHAM

The marriage Wednesday evening of Miss Harriet Calhoun and Mr. W. Stuart Witham, Jr., was of especial interest on account of the prominence of both the families. Hundreds of friends witnessed the ceremony which took place at 8:30 o'clock at the Central Presbyterian church and were entertained later at a bachelorette reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. W. Calhoun, on Peachtree street.

A distinctive feature of the elaborate church decorations were the myriad incandescent electric lights gleaming from the green garlands suspended overhead and through the flower studded altar. The entire ceiling of the church was caped with festoons of smilax. The mass of green palms and ferns backed in the organ loft was relieved by clusters of Easter lilies and at the base of the living green altar were hundreds of pink and blue hydrangeas which was the predominant flower used.

An alcove of roses, lilies and hydrangeas marked the place of the minister and six tall white posts entwined with smilax through which gleamed tiny electric bulbs, made an immediate background for the wedding party grouped in a semi-circle about the bride and bridegroom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dunbar H. Ogden, and the wedding attendants included the bride's two cousins, Miss Marian Phinney, of Augusta, and Miss Martha Phinney, of Athens, maids of honor: Miss Fannie May O'Leary, first bridesmaid, Miss Katherine Ellis, Miss Jessie Jones, Miss Louise Sawyer, Miss Marjorie Brown, bridesmaids: Mr. Ralph Ragan, Dr. Jere D. Martin, Mr. James H. Hart, Mr. B. W. Martin, Mr. Hubbard Allen, Mr. Charles Cox, Mr. Baxter Jackson of Nashville, Mr. Calhoun, brother of the groom, S. C. Croswell.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Phinney Calhoun, and Mr. Floyd McRae, Jr., was best man. Master Junior Calhoun, young nephew of the bride, carried the white satin pillow to the altar, and the ushers were Mr. Edward H. Alfred, Mr. William H. Kiser, Mr. Douglas Manley, Mr. R. T. Dorsey, Mr. J. C. Oglesby, Mr. William Perrin Nicholson, Mr. Albert Howell and Mr. Alex. King.

The bride's stately and patriotic beauty was never more striking than in her wedding robe which was an imported model of lustrous white satin gracefully draped with thread lace of the finest soft-lace combined with folds of fine white tulle. A long court train hung from the shoulders and the veil was fastened with a chaplet of orange blossoms. Rare white orchids formed the bride's bouquet and her only ornament was an exquisite diamond and platinum bracelet. The gift of the groom was a ring as suggested in the beautiful bride's hands was brought to the altar by Miss Lulu Dean Jones and Mr. Beverly Dufosse at 7 o'clock and will be followed by the wedding rehearsal.

The guests will include Miss Jones, Miss Mary Scott Ferguson, of Roanoke, Va.; Miss Marjorie Goldsmith, Miss Frances Connally, Miss Caroline Mize, Miss Carolyn King, Miss Marjorie Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Jones, Mrs. Robert Dufosse, Mr. William Dufosse, of Seawater, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Shelton, Mr. Thomas Johnston, Mr. O. H. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders Jones, Mr. Russell Compton, Mr. Dugas McCleary, Mr. George Street, Lieutenant Alfred Blomberg of the U. S. A., Mr. Bolling Jones, Jr., and Mr. Stanley Mathewson.

Luncheon for Miss Jones.
The pretty luncheon at which Miss Jones was the guest of honor at the Piedmont club Thursday was a charming compliment to Miss Lulu Dean Jones, whose marriage to Mr. Beverly Dufosse will be a beautiful event of Friday evening.

An artistic arrangement of peach blossoms and violets graced the center of the prettily appointed luncheon table. And the color motif of violet and pink was suggested in all the minor details and the places of the guests were marked by cards decorated with peach blossoms and violets.

Miss Connally was gowned in a smart suit of blue gingham with hat of blue milan straw trimmed in yellow flowers.

Miss Jones wore a becoming gown of old rose crepe de chine fashioned with silk skirt with touches of gray on the bodice and her hat was of gray adorned with pink roses.

Miss Mary Scott Ferguson, of Roanoke, wore a Lucile model of green faille with clinging blouse of the same shade and picture hat caught on one side with a bird of paradise.

Mrs. Harrison Jones was gowned in blue faille, and her hat was a model of black chiffon.

BEAUTIFUL GOWNS WORN.
The bride's mother, Mrs. A. W. Calhoun, was handsomely gowned in black satin veiled in chiffon and trimmed in rose point lace, and wore orchids.

Mrs. Witham, the groom's mother, wore white and silver broadened satin with a corsage bouquet of violets and valley lilies.

Mrs. O. Oglesby, Jr., the bride's only sister, and her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Phinney Calhoun and Mrs. Andrew Calhoun, with Mrs. R. T. Dorsey, Jr., sister of the bridegroom, assisted in entertaining.

Mrs. Oglesby wore an evening gown in pastel shades with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Phinney Calhoun was lovely in a gown of white satin and chiffon, and Mrs. Andrew Calhoun wore white satin.

Mrs. Jones's gown was of white tulle with touches of pink.

Mrs. and Mrs. Witham will visit points of interest in California on their wedding trip, and upon their return to Atlanta will reside with the bride's mother.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Billings Phinney, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phinney, of Augusta; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Dure, of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John Ohi, of New York, and Mrs. R. L. Condon, of Louisville, Ky.

Miss Lilla Kuehnle, of Deming, Ia., who arrived Wednesday to be the guest of Mrs. Charles Remsen, will be the honor guest at a series of parties.

Mrs. Frank Adair will entertain at the tea dance Saturday at the Druid Hills golf club, and Mr. Billy Ragan will give a dinner Sunday evening at the dinner dance at the Piedmont club in honor of the attractive visitor.

MISS JONES AND MR. DEMERE WEDDED AT HOME CEREMONY

"Seven Gables," the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hurd Hillier in Ansel Park, was the scene of a beautiful wedding. Wednesday evening when Miss Jane Jones and Mr. Edward Houston Demere, of Savannah, were united in marriage. Dr. Dunbar Ogden performed the ceremony at 6:30 in the presence of the members of the family connection, out-of-town guests and friends of the family.

The bride party made a beautiful picture standing in the drawing room before a large and graceful Easter lilies. The bride party included Mrs. William Hurd Hillier, mother of the bride, Miss Susan Young, maid of honor, and Mr. Raymond Demere, best man. Misses Corinne Cunningham and Eleanor Hillier and Master Fairley Cunningham, niece and nephew of the bride, were ribbon bearers. And Miss Jane Hillier was flower girl and scattered rose petals in the way of the bride.

The bride was beautiful in her wedding robes of lustrous white champagne, the bodice veiled with rare lace and embroidered with tiny seed pearls. Her tulle veil was adjusted to the soft dark hair with a spray of orange blossoms and her bouquet of valley lilies and white orchids was showered with tulle bows. Mrs. Hillier, the sister of the bride, was gowned in white and carried over her shoulders a bouquet of pink roses showered with lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Susan Young, was also gowned in white and carried the same lovely flowers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. The rooms presented the semblance of a spring garden with the many beautiful flowers arranged in artistic display. The enclosed porch was banked with palms and ferns and here guests were served by a group of girls including Miss Mary Algood Jones, Miss Grace Jones, Miss Anna Jones and Miss Anna Belle West.

Mrs. Demere, who is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Dunwoody Jones, is a very popular member of southern society and has many friends in the city who will regret that her marriage will take her away to live. During the evening Mrs. and Mr. Demere left for the Isle of Hope to spend some time before going to Savannah to make their home.

Dance at Athletic Club
The usual informal week end dance at the Atlanta Athletic club will be a bright occasion of Saturday evening commencing at 8:30 o'clock.

BEAUTY DOCTOR TELLS SECRET
Detroit Beauty Doctor Gives Simple Recipe to Darken Gray Hair and Promote Its Growth.

Miss Alice Whitney, a well-known beauty doctor of Detroit, Mich., recently gave out the following statement: "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, promote its growth and make it soft and glossy. To half a pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1-4 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will result in a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of the hair, relieve itching and scalp diseases, and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair.—(Adv.)"

Mrs. Walter D. Lamar Endorsed For President General U. D. C.

The announcement of the candidacy of Mrs. Walter D. Lamar, of Macon, for the office of president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be of interest throughout the United States. The election will take place in San Francisco in October at the general convention which convenes on October 28. The office of president general has been ably filled by Mrs. Daisy McClinton Stevens of Mississippi, and entails the leadership of southern women in forty states.

The members of the Sidney Lanier chapter of Macon recognizing in Mrs. Walter Douglas Lamar a leader and a power in the United Daughters of the Confederacy, desire to present her as a candidate for president general.

Her services for six years as president of their chapter, the work she has promoted or personally accomplished for the division since becoming its president, the enormous undertaking she handled so successfully for the U. D. C. reunion, 1912, as chairman of the Women's Auxiliary, have proven her ability to put through whatever difficult project her power of initiative shall propose or the organization may require.

At the Savannah convention, representatives from every state endeavored to secure Mrs. Lamar's consent to stand for president general, 1915, but she declined all overtures because she had promised her assistance to Mrs. McKinney, of Kentucky, for 1915. Ill health the latter has withdrawn from the race, so that Georgia is now in a position to ask that Mrs. Lamar be made president general in 1915.

The following letters endorsing Mrs. Lamar as candidate will be read with interest:

We, the members of the executive board of the Georgia division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, do hereby present the name of Mrs. Walter Douglas Lamar for the office of president general, U. D. C., and ask that you consider in this connection the accompanying letter from the historian general, which we think removes the only reason for objecting to Georgia's putting forward a candidate for president general.

(Signed) Mrs. C. Helen Fane, honorary president; Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, first vice president; Mrs. Zebulon Walker, second vice president; Mrs. C. Verren, third vice president; Mrs. James E. Howard, registrar; Mrs. Duncan Brown, corresponding secretary; Miss Mattie Schiebel, treasurer; Mrs. William McGee, registrar; Mildred Rutherford, historian; Mrs. James E. Duncan, auditor.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 13, 1915.
To Mrs. Duncan Brown, Corresponding Secretary Georgia Division, U. D. C.

STEWART NOT SERIOUS ABOUT ECONOMY LEAGUE

AND P. Stewart, tax collector for Fulton county, who was reported in Wednesday's Journal as accepting the office of vice president of the Civic League Economy, said Thursday that he was really surprised that he had been taken seriously, that he understood the officers of the league, who had asked him to accept the position, to be merely joking him. He further declared no court in Fulton county renders greater service to the county and the state than does Judge and Mrs. Calhoun's court, which the league said to have planned to abolish.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., CARS ARE TIED UP BY BIG STRIKE

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 8.—As a result of strike of the Amalgamated Association of the Street Railway employees, not a car was moving in Auburn, the Auburn-Syracuse line. The New York systems were more or less paralyzed. The strike was called last night after the Empire United League refused to recognize the Amalgamated as the representative union body of its employees. The company has contracts with the Brotherhood of Engineers and Conductors on some of the lines.

Cars on Oswego division still were running today, but each car carried a deputy sheriff and was escorted to the city limits by automobiles filled with policemen.

Interesting Weddings

Parker-Gilmore

JACKSON.—An interesting event of Monday was the marriage of Miss Annie Gilmore to Mr. Edward Parker, of Lyons, Ga., which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Gilmore, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Only the families and most intimate friends of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Olin Kirk, pastor of the First Methodist church, the wedding coming as a surprise to many of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker left on the afternoon train for Washington and other points east, after which they will be at home in Lyons.

WEST POINT, Ga., April 8.—The early attendants at the Baptist church last night at prayer meeting witnessed a surprise marriage. The contracting parties were Mr. Willis Johnson and Miss Ethel Greene. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Graham Bortner. The groom is the assistant cashier of the First National bank and the bride one of West Point's prettiest and most popular young ladies and is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. H. H. Greene. They left on the late train for Atlanta.

ROME'S COMMISSION CONTINUES TO "FIRE"

Former Tax Receiver Latest to Be Removed From Long-Held Office

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

ROME, Ga., April 8.—The new city commission is continuing its work of removing all employees. Former tax receiver G. S. Reese, who has been in office for a number of years, was removed and the office of tax receiver abolished. In his stead it was decided to employ an officer at a salary of $100 a month to take the tax returns, his term to run three months. J. Tom Jenkins, former tax receiver of Floyd county, was chosen for this position. On the afternoon train for Washington and other points east, after which they will be at home in Lyons.

Most Old People Are Constipated

The wear of years impairs the action of the bowels. With advancing age people are disposed to be strictly active and exercise, which is responsible for the constipated condition of most old folks. The digestive organs are more sensitive to the demands made upon them and rebel more quickly.

A mild, effective remedy for constipation, and one that is especially suited to the needs of elderly people, women and children, is the combination of simple laxative with sugar that is sold in every drug store under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 462 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Thickness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is falling gray or dry, thin, flakey and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 75 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wetzel's Sage and Sulphur Compound"; this avoids a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wetzel's Sage and Sulphur Compound, you can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—(Adv.)

Don'ts for Women Churchgoers

We are constantly reading of don'ts for dancing, don'ts for dining, don'ts for golfing and don'ts for gardening, so why should not a few don'ts for worshiping come in a trifle apropos?

Don't be late to the service; if tardiness is unavoidable, enter quietly and do not disturb those about by a noisy removal of wraps and a general getting settled.

Don't wear showy clothes; a plain tailored suit and a small hat is the proper costume for church.

Don't remove your gloves in church, especially if a handful of roses is to be displayed.

Don't glare and frow at your seat partners to be occupied by strangers. The usher is to blame, not the newcomers.

Don't be remiss about offering the prayer book or hymn book, as the case may be.

Don't neglect to pass the offering plate to those in the same pew, thus making it unnecessary for them to reach awkwardly across to it.

Don't use strong perfumes or wear flowers with a heavy fragrance. Many a bunch of violets, devoid of its sweet scent, has spoiled the service for some one.

Don't overdo the observance of any religious custom sufficiently to become conspicuous.

Don't take young children to church unless they have been trained to be quiet. Sunday school and not a long service is the place for them.

Don't, in churches where communion is administered at the altar rail, run ahead of others, apparently to get there first.

Don't begin putting on wraps, etc., before the service is finished—Exchange.

Bowels Regular--Kidneys Active

Take Jacobs' Liver Salt and Avoid Constipation, Indigestion and Headache. Clears up the Urine By Dissolving Uric Acid, Avoid Calomel.

Health is almost wholly a matter of regular bowels and active liver and kidneys. Let the liver run down, then come constipation, biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, dizziness, rheumatism, simply because the system is being poisoned by gases generated from fermented food waste which has not been properly eliminated and forms uric acid. All food leaves waste in the alimentary canal and the richer the diet the more waste; and the liver should clean out the waste and the bowels regulate elimination. Health is a Habit—Watching your liver.

Jacobs' Liver Salt never forces; it just flushes the alimentary tract, loosens the waste deposit and gives the natural and cleansing elimination. It will regulate your liver and bowels and end those periodic bilious breakdowns and the dosing of calomel or blue mass with its nausea and awful sickness.

Jacobs' Liver Salt is agreeable, and never grips. It acts gently, naturally and promptly, the best liver regulator for everybody, and if you are not satisfied after taking it, your druggist will return your money. Health is almost wholly a matter of regular bowels and active liver and kidneys. Let the liver run down, then come constipation, biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, dizziness, rheumatism, simply because the system is being poisoned by gases generated from fermented food waste which has not been properly eliminated and forms uric acid. All food leaves waste in the alimentary canal and the richer the diet the more waste; and the liver should clean out the waste and the bowels regulate elimination. Health is a Habit—Watching your liver.

Jacobs' Liver Salt never forces; it just flushes the alimentary tract, loosens the waste deposit and gives the natural and cleansing elimination. It will regulate your liver and bowels and end those periodic bilious breakdowns and the dosing of calomel or blue mass with its nausea and awful sickness.

Brown and Houck Ready for Bout Tonight; Crackers Win First From Reds

Jess Willard Back on Home Soil Once More

New Champion Lands at Key West and Is Greeted by Great Crowd - Manager Jones Won't Match Him for a Year or More

KEY WEST, Fla., April 8.—Jess Willard, the new heavyweight champion pugilist of the world, arrived here late Wednesday from Havana, where on Monday he won the title from Jack Johnson. A crowd of several thousand who gathered on the pier to greet the new champion, broke down fences and started ropes trying to get near the Kansas giant. The police had great difficulty in preserving order.

When the steamship Governor Cobb, bringing Willard and his party, steamed into the harbor, all shipping flew flags of welcome and crowds lined the rails and yelled cheering words at the white champion. Several government torpedo boat destroyers opened their sirens in welcome.

Willard stood on the upper deck and repeatedly lifted his broad brimmed black sombrero in answer.

As the steamship warped into her dock, the crowd of cheering fans, children and on the pier craned necks for a glimpse of Willard. A few moments later as Willard came down the gang plank the crowd, held back until the following day, broke into a stampede and raced in the direction of the champion.

Soon Willard was surrounded by a throng of cheering fans, gesticulating persons and he was half-circled by a crowd of reporters. A committee from the board of trade accompanied him into a carriage for a parade up to the town.

The procession to Willard's hotel and the given an enthusiastic reception.

When Willard was shown a telegram offering $2,000 as a purse for a fight with Frank Moran he said:

"I have not seen anything about my future plans. See Tom Jones," indicating his manager. Jones declared that Willard would not fight for nine months or a year.

"Willard," said Jones, "has been training for a year and a half and has earned a great deal of money. He is going to pick up the money that is due him, for you know Willard has not made any big money out of real boxing."

"After Jess has completed his tour and had a rest he will be ready to defend the title against any man who will fight another fight, and will not meet any of the public any more. Any time, however, that a real man will contend against him, and popular support, Jess will be found ready to meet him for the title in any part of the world."

Members of the board of the fair-weather meeting between Johnson and Willard in Havana just before the championship fight. Willard left the champion Jack Johnson turned to a friend and said:

"It was going back to the states, it certainly is hard to be away from home. But when Johnson shouldered his way through the crowd and disappeared."

Crackers Take First From Reds

Middle Weights Ready For Big Battle Tonight

Cubs Willing to Let Jumper Go

BY GRANTLAND RICE
The Big Shadow over the fight game has been lifted at last. When Jess Willard he did something more than restore the heavyweight championship to the Caucasian cause. For beyond this he swept away the big barrier which had clogged the game's popularity for five lagging years.

Johnson as champion kept the heavyweight game blocked to a final, especially in America. He was not even welcome as a citizen of this neutral commonwealth, much less a fighter who might occasionally defend his crown. He simply kept the heavyweight game choked down to nothing, with all progress at a standstill.

BACK TO THE OLD HIP-HIP.
But now the heavyweight prospectus is fringed with silver and purple for the first time in fifteen years. When Jeffries was champion he so far outclassed the field that all competition was worse than piffle. The game went to seed and all interest faded out.

And then when Johnson supplanted Jeffries, the deadly lethargy remained, for Johnson was soon buried under the Stars and Stripes. This five-year somnolence at the main division put the entire game under a heavy handicap. For here was a champion who was not only unpopular, but whose main battle at home was to keep away from the iron bars and stripes and the jangling ball and chain.

SCRAMBLE ON.
Willard's victory changes all this. Willard isn't nearly as invincible as Jeffries was, and unlike Johnson, Willard will be permitted to pursue his avocation at various spots from East to West.

He was the entering wedge, as the phrase goes, for heavyweight popularity again, and with so many buoyant and ambitious white hopes around pursuing his title like a fat puppy chasing a meat wagon, the Kansas will have plenty to do.

It isn't likely that he will be in any amazing hurry to fight again, not at least until he has gathered under his iron chest and the chests of his backers all the loose change there may be—which may be found ready to meet him for the title in any part of the world.

It has been a matter of some ten or more years since two white men fought for the legitimate championship of the world. The last affair of an exclusively pale face nature was back when Jeffries fought Burns—and retired. The so-called championship between Burns and Hart was a joke—for Jeffries was still unbeaten at that date.

But it is a fairly safe proposition that the next heavyweight affair of championship mold will be between two citizens with Caucasian inclinations. Who the other citizen will be is still something of a guess. It may be that Willard will first desire to get back at Gunboat Smith, who won the decision from him some time ago. Or it may be that he will fight Smith, Corbett, Reich and the rest of the field fight it out among themselves while he is busy pursuing the festive dollar as it looks to be.

SHORT ROUTE FIRST.
Also, it is more than probable that it will be quite a while before Willard takes on a 48-round contest again. The only chance to stage it more to his liking is to battle in the 10 and 20-round staff until it is pretty well exhausted.

In this fight he has nothing to lose, but some fairly sound money can be earned over the 10-round route—for no living man could ever better down such a bulk of flesh as Willard in that short space.

HARD TO DISPLACE.
There is a chance, of course, that if Willard fought Sam Langford or Joe Gannette over the long route he might walk into some danger. But if Johnson couldn't beat him there is no great chance that any other of the present crop can turn the trick.

In this fight he has nothing to lose, but some fairly sound money can be earned over the 10-round route—for no living man could ever better down such a bulk of flesh as Willard in that short space.

OUTSIDE CONTENDERS.
For if Willard rests too long he will soon be starting back, and long and too far out of range. He knows as much as any of the other white fighters in the sport, and he knows as much as any of the other white fighters in the sport, and he knows as much as any of the other white fighters in the sport.

OLD DAYS GONE?
Judging from the recent champion, the old days of the Corbett-hard-hitting contest could reach the top.

For fifteen years the champion has weighed less than 210 pounds—white fighters have been coming on and going off like the rules of the game. Johnson, Corbett, Fitzsimmons, Jeffries, and Johnson now sit. Each of them, in his time, was ranked as the One Inevitable. The day time attended to that part of it when the appointed hour arrived.

Hiet Works in Great Shape, Cubans Show Great Speed, Second Game Today

By Innis Brown

The Havana Reds, an aggregation of native Cuban ball tossers championed by Senior Jose Massaguer, Jr., making their first appearance in the city, lined up against Manager Bill Smith's Crackers Wednesday afternoon in the first of a four-game series. Morce of hand landed the Crackers on the long end of the score, which in this case happened to be 5 to 3. This makes five in a row that the home people have registered, and this quintet was grabbed from one American association club, two big league outfits, and one independent club, the Reds.

The Crackers kept up their favorite stunt of piling all of their efforts into one frame, and all of the games won, they have gotten down to business with a pull-together spirit that made the most of their chances. Accordingly in this first fray with the Reds, they concentrated their efforts on the sixth inning Wednesday, and piled up then and there enough runs to win by a good comfortable margin.

As a matter of fact, up until this sixth inning, the Reds were one of the keenest hitters seen in this section. They were running on five full innings, young Brown, who was doing the slugging work for the visitors, had not allowed a hit. He was making the Crackers feel the home boys were not getting along with a clean swing, but the support back of Ballister was taking care of everything.

Widened developed in the sixth, when the Crackers' downfall. He walked Brown, and Bland scored. Then he lost Elbel on four but ones. Moran pried loose the first hit, and Elbel scored. Elbel went to third, and Moran took second on the throw to catch Kack. Manning produced a No. 2, counting two more safe drives by Tulio. Another was the eighth on a couple of errors, and the issue was really settled when Tim Rowden scuttled over with the first run form, the Crackers were never able to get the trip around the bags.

It was in this first inning that the situation at all times. In the first and second innings, the Crackers were safe runs per frame, and followed a couple of visitors threatened to approach scoring territory. It was really settled when Tim Rowden scuttled over with the first run form, the Crackers were never able to get the trip around the bags.

Will Make No Fight for Pitcher McConnell, If Feds Will Pay Expenses Incurred on Him

CHICAGO, April 8.—Charles H. Thomas, president of the Chicago National league, intimated Wednesday he was willing to let the pitcher McConnell, pitcher of the Chicago Federals, pitch if the Nationals could get back the money he had invested in him. Thomas examined a statement of the expense the Nationals incurred in McConnell, if Feds will pay expenses incurred on him.

Thomas continued: "Knowing you as I do, I cannot be sure that you personally would care to enact the role of Captain Kidd and especially grab one of our players, especially as the decision of the National regarding these matters has not been handed down. No one expected any act of piracy pending this decision and I can hardly bring myself to believe that you have signed pitcher McConnell as a good sport and a business man. You would not want to condemn the assets of another business concern."

Will Make No Fight for Pitcher McConnell, If Feds Will Pay Expenses Incurred on Him

CHICAGO, April 8.—Charles H. Thomas, president of the Chicago National league, intimated Wednesday he was willing to let the pitcher McConnell, pitcher of the Chicago Federals, pitch if the Nationals could get back the money he had invested in him. Thomas examined a statement of the expense the Nationals incurred in McConnell, if Feds will pay expenses incurred on him.

Thomas continued: "Knowing you as I do, I cannot be sure that you personally would care to enact the role of Captain Kidd and especially grab one of our players, especially as the decision of the National regarding these matters has not been handed down. Morris Beaten By Jim Coffey

Tech Juniors Win on Track

NEW YORK, April 8.—Jim Coffey, the "Dublin giant," administered a severe beating to Carl Morris, of Oklahoma, in a ten-round bout here last night.

Coffey made record use of a left jab and a right hook to the head while Morris, who weighed 225 pounds to Coffey's 240, scored heavily on his opponent in the clinches. At close quarters Morris landed many hard body blows.

Coffey was really settled when Tim Rowden scuttled over with the first run form, the Crackers were never able to get the trip around the bags.

It was in this first inning that the situation at all times. In the first and second innings, the Crackers were safe runs per frame, and followed a couple of visitors threatened to approach scoring territory.
